DEAR DIANE

... wonderful person who can't be swayed by petty malicious gossip. After all, people who gossip are proving how lacking in character they themselves are when they have nothing better to do than to judge others. They would do every one a favor if they'd pay attention to their own pathetic lives.

Get on with your life and don't let the misguided actions of others interfere. It's not worth it. Obviously your young man cares for you and believes in you as a person. Leave it at that.

A Flail furniture was often in the mission style. It was made in Whalen, N.Y., about 1914 and marked with a paper label.

For a copy of the Kovels' leaflet, "How to Refinish and Date a Trunk," send $1 and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Kovels, P.O. Box 22900, Beachwood, Ohio 44122.

Learn more about antiques. Watch "Collector's Journal with Ralph and Terry Kovel" on the Discovery Channel each Tuesday (repeated Friday and Saturday).

Q. I read a story in one of the tabloids that John Travolta got upset with something Sylvester Stallone did and doesn't talk to him now. I can't remember if they identified what it was. Sly was supposed to have done. Mike

CHICKEN WITH SWEET AND SOUR GRAPE SAUCE

[illegible]

1 cup red pepper strips
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1 tablespoon finely minced fresh ginger root
⅓ cup apricot preserves
1 cup red or green grapes, halved and seeded if necessary

Cut chicken into bite-sized pieces, dip into egg. Mix corn flake crumbs with salt and pepper; coat chicken with crumbs. Place on greased sheet, bake at 375°F 15 minutes or until golden. Arrange on serving platter. Heat oil and onion in fry pan, add pepper strips, soy sauce and ginger and cook one minute. Stir in preserves and grapes, cook until thoroughly heated. Pour over chicken pieces. Makes about four servings.

Tip: Frozen prepared breaded chicken nuggets can be used instead of breading your own chicken pieces.

This way, she knows that this is for a special purpose and, once again, there is peace in my apartment. Plus, I don't have to make any more extra runs to the store for just one item!
